

THE 13TH FRAME

August 2014

Our Australian Youth Team is currently in Hong Kong having competed at the 13th World Youth Championships. You can find all the results here.

And whilst still on the subject of Australian teams, we recently announced the Men's team who will compete in Abu Dhabi in December. Jason Belmonte will be spearheading the lineup which includes a mix of experienced and up and coming athletes such as Jayden Leming. It will be yet another stamp in the passport for Jayden who is having a busy year, having bowled in the Asian Schools at the start of the year and currently competing with the Australian Youth team. The full announcement of the Men's team can be found here.

We recently announced the 8 lucky TBA members who won 10 weeks of free league bowling! Welcome to all our new members who can now start enjoying the benefits of being a TBA member. Thank you for supporting our sport.

We are delighted to report that Australia now has more than 50 USBC Certified Coaches and growing as our existing coaches transition across and new coaches attend courses. To check out what courses are available for the remainder of the year click here. If you have ever thought about becoming a coach we'd love to hear from you and help you get started.
